PRESIDENT OF COUNCIL SAYS TAX RATE HERE IS "VERY LOW"

"Borough finances are in good shape, and the tax rate, which has remained unchanged, is very low in comparison with many other communities," Councilman H. M. Oyer, president of the Borough Council, told members of the Women's Civic Council Friday night at its first fall meeting at the YWCA.

He said that while in past years it had cost between $35,000 and $38,000 to operate the borough government, "operation costs have risen, and this year it will cost about $120,000. The borough has better equipment now than it ever had, with its new $9,000 roller, new trucks and modern snow loader.

In response to questions about the mosquito nuisance, he said that while in the past about $500 was spent during the summer to rid the town of mosquitoes, much more was expended this summer and that oil is still being sprayed on Rock Creek.

Quizzed On Comfort Station
The council president discussed the operation of the Municipal Authority, the new sewage disposal plant and the police department. He was asked many questions relative to the possibility of building a public comfort station, which club members said was necessary for both residents and tourists.

Mrs. Frederic Griest, Flora Dale, said many tourists stop at her fruit stand and complain about facilities in Gettysburg and "cannot understand why a community like Gettysburg doesn't take some action on such an important matter."

Mrs. W. R. Sammel, president of the YWCA, said that providing comfort station facilities not only to local residents but "to busload after busload of tourists is not usually a function of YWCA's and that since no special water rate is obtainable, the cost of this service is becoming prohibitive and that some other arrangement will soon have to be made or extra finances provided for the Y."

Mr. Oyer said the borough would cooperate as far as possible.

14 Groups Represented
Fourteen organizations were represented at the meeting. Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler, president, presided. The following changes of representation were reported:

Woman's Club, Mrs. Frederic E. Griest replacing Mrs. S. Lester Scott; Eagles Auxiliary, Mrs. Pearl W. Wiser replacing Mrs. Roy Col-smith.

Mrs. Charles L. Lauer, secretary, who was in charge of securing workers for the Information Booth during the first half of this month, reported that members of the Civic Council organizations served many times during the summer.

The president stated that she would resume her official visits to member organizations this fall. Six were visited during the late winter and spring. The officers were authorized.

LOCAL ANTIQUE CAR OWNERS TO BE IN '52 TOUR

The 1952 Glidden Tour of antique automobiles will pass through Gettysburg Tuesday morning, and when it does, there will be four of these antique vehicles from this area, two of them from Gettysburg.

Glidden tourers will meet Monday in Harrisburg in time for a banquet at the Penn-Harris Hotel. They will begin leaving the state capital shortly after 7 a.m. Tuesday.

The first cars are expected to pass through Gettysburg, driving in Carlisle St., around Lincoln Square and out Baltimore St. and Steinwehr Ave. to the Washington Rd. shortly after 8 o'clock.

2 Local Men In Tour
Local antique car owners who plan to take part in the tour are John D. Teeter and Ernest Simpson. Teeter has a 1915 Ford Touring car. Simpson has a 1916 Overland touring.

Teeter and Simpson expect to join the cavalcade in Harrisburg for the start and remain with it to Washington. John D. Basehoar, Little-town, who has a 1915 Ford Ford, belonged to his father, the late D. D. Basehoar, will compete in the endurance contest part of the tour. He will drive his car to Philadelphia and there join the party for the trip to Harrisburg by way of Stroudsburg, this route being taken in order to accumulate the necessary 200 miles.

Dr. Mark Redding, Hanover, a former Adams County, and a brother of Allen Redding, Baltimore St., expects to be in the parade too, but may not go to Harrisburg, joining the other antique cars as they pass through Gettysburg.

SOCIETY TO MEET

The annual reorganization meeting of the Adams County Unit of the American Cancer Society will be held Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the board room of the Warner Hospital.

Tiniest Twins Thriving Now

Tiny but beautiful bits of humanity are the two young girls shown posing for their first picture at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Duttera, Guldens. The prematurely-born youngsters were the smallest twins ever at the Warner Hospital. The young lady to the left, Sharon Ruth, weighed one pound, 15 ounces at birth on May 16. Her sister, Shirley Ruth, weighed two pounds two ounces. Recently, they reached approximately seven pounds apiece and were removed to their home.

Small Baby Girls At Home After 3 Months In Incubator

Two tiny girls, the smallest living twins ever born in the Warner Hospital, are now at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Duttera, Guldens, and growing bigger and stronger and healthier every day.

The tiny youngsters, now more than three months of age, weigh a little over seven pounds apiece—the weight of a normal sized baby at birth.

Now plump and pink, the little tots are a delight to their parents, and to their two-year-old brother, Johnny, who thinks it a "wonderful thing" to have two such tiny sisters. There is sometimes a little confusion as to which is Shirley Ruth and which is Sharon Ruth, but the family can generally straighten things out when they put the two together. One is more active than the other. Shirley, if one looks sharply, is a little plumper than Sharon.

Identical Twins
Since the two are identical twins, the family hopes they grow up to look exactly alike—to the amused confusion of everyone. When the children, some three months premature, entered the world, however, there was not much hope for the girls' survival. Shirley at birth weighed two pounds, two ounces; Sharon weighed one pound, 15 ounces.

The incubator at the hospital became their home and they became known to the hospital nurses as "A" and "B." As the weeks went on, the extremely tiny humans became the "stars" of the nursery, despite the competition of the normal babies who were "gigantic" in comparison to the two-pound infants.

Incubator Wore Out
One incubator wore out while the children were still under hospital care. They were transferred immediately to a new incubator.

Dr. Harrison Harbach, who kept a watchful eye on their growth, says he believes the twins are among the smallest ever born who survived and grew to normal infancy.

Birthday of the twins was May 16. Shirley reached the point where she could leave the hospital to go to her home at Guldens Station on August 31.

Incidentally the Ruth portion of the twins' names is that of their mother.

Here And There News Collected At Random

The bulletin of Christ Lutheran Church, Rev. Wallace E. Fisher, pastor, under date of September 14 contained the following:

Now here's a bit worth pondering — "The thin-lipped virtues may have their place . . . but what they add up to is something less than goodness and considerably less than character. What I am saying is that if you don't swear, don't cheat, don't lie, don't gamble, don't lose your temper, don't transgress any of these meritorious prohibitions and proscriptions, and yet refuse the claim of the world for brotherhood, the cry for a universal, just community, it would be better if you cheated, lied and all the rest and still had room for the great claims, the great purposes of your age. What I am saying is that if you never listen to a dirty story but you do listen to race

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. V. Clair Gardner, Mt. Holly Springs, announce the birth of a daughter on Thursday.

Bride, 19, Expectant Mother, Stricken With Polio At Mount

The 19-year-old bride of a Mount Saint Mary's College student is the fifth Emmitsburg area resident to be stricken with polio.

Mrs. Peggy Greenholt, a resident of Hanover, who, with her husband, moved to the married students' quarters at Mount Saint Mary's about ten days ago, was diagnosed as suffering with polio Friday and was rushed to the York hospital.

Dr. James H. Allison, her physician, said Mrs. Greenholt, who is an expectant mother, had been ill since Tuesday, but had believed her illness was a virus infection which has been prevalent this summer. Friday she noticed an unusual weakness in the lower portion of her legs, and diagnosis showed she had polio.

The physician said "the chances are that her case is not related to the others in Emmitsburg, but that

2 PROCESSORS CITED IN FTC COMPLAINT ON APPLE BUSINESS

Local processors and fruit growers were amazed today to learn that the Appalachian Apple Service, Inc., and two county processing concerns have been cited in a complaint of the Federal Trade Commission as having "entered into an understanding, agreement and combination to restrain trade and interstate commerce in apples" and with "engaging in a planned common course of action."

Cited in the complaint are the Appalachian Apple Service, which includes a number of local growers, the C. H. Musselman Co., Biglerville; Knoose Foods Cooperative, Peach Glen; National Fruit Product Company, Winchester; Bowman Apple Products, Mt. Jackson, Va., and Shenandoah Valley Apple Cider and Vinegar Corp. of Winchester. The citation includes all officers and members, including the growers, of the various organizations.

Commenting on the complaint which may lead to a "cease and desist" order, John A. Hauser, president of the C. H. Musselman Co., said today: "As I understand the complaint we have been cited as endeavoring to work with and help the growers. It is certainly true that we have their interests at heart."

In Sympathy With FTC

"While we are in sympathy with the aims and purposes of the Federal Trade Commission and disapprove of unfair competition and unfair acts of competition in commerce, we do feel that long established trade customs in a far-flung business like the apple industry in buying and selling tend

Action Flares Anew In Korea; Allies Retain 4 Hill Positions

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — Tank-supported Chinese Reds won control of the crest of Old Baldy Hill last night but were driven back in charges against four other U. N. hill positions in a flareup of action on the Korean front.

Red artillery fire increased all along the line.

U. N. planes hammered the Reds with gasoline bombs and bullets in supporting Allied infantrymen on Old Baldy, a battle-scarred knob west of Chorwon.

The U. S. Eighth Army said U. N. troops last night and today repulsed a tank supported Chinese assault against four Allied hill positions south of Panmunjom, site of the armistice talks. The Reds attacked in battalion force—about 800 men—along a front nearly two miles wide.

An Eighth Army staff officer said sketchy front reports that the Communists controlled the crest of Old Baldy didn't necessarily mean they were atop it.

But U. N. soldiers have pulled out of prefabricated bunkers on the crest and dug in on the eastern and western slopes. The Chinese are on the north side of the hill and Allied tanks cover the southern approach.

ized to make inquiry as to the plans of the apparently disbanded Associated Civic and Service Group, which was organized several years ago to take over some of the civic problems in which the women were interested, the most important of which was the public comfort station.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hennig stated that she had been elected treasurer of the group and was holding the dues that had been collected but that no meetings had been called for a long time. Other members stated that their requests for information as to the present status were "unsatisfactorily answered" by the officers.

Seek Large Vote

Members were urged to help get out the vote in the November election. The council agreed to co-operate with the A.A.U.W. by participating in a pre-election meeting planned for October 17, with outstanding Republican and Democratic women from Harrisburg as the speakers. This being the Council's regular meeting night, the meeting time will be advanced to 7 o'clock to permit members to attend the other program at 8 p.m.

The president appointed a Nominating Committee consisting of Miss Louise Ramer, Mrs. Lloyd Washington and Mrs. Edith Bushman to prepare a slate of officers to be elected at the November meeting. No member may serve more than two consecutive years as a representative of any one organization. She may serve an additional consecutive two years, however, as a representative from a different organization; as a member-at-large, if such a membership is available; as a member of the Executive Board; or as an elected officer. After the lapse of one year any person is again eligible for membership.

HOSPITAL UNIT PLANS BENEFIT

LANZA IS SUED FOR $5,195,888

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Mario Lanza was sued for $5,195,888 damages yesterday by his studio, MGM, which charges the singer broke his contract by failing to show up for work in the movie, "Student Prince."

The suit climaxed months of disagreement between the young singer and his movie bosses, MGM, which has had Lanza under contract since 1947, has suspended the former Philadelphia piano mover several times.

MGM's suit said the movie had to be cancelled after Lanza refused to report for work last Aug. 22. The studio said it spent nearly $700,000 in pre-production preparations for the picture.

Lanza has never publicly given his version. He declined comment on the suit.

It asks $595,888 special damages and 4 1/2 million general damages for loss of prospective profits. It also seeks a permanent injunction enjoining Lanza from working for anyone else.

to follow natural lines, according to supply and demand, and we feel that these forces should be allowed free play in the interests of all concerned." Hauser, noting that the growers are represented directly in Appalachian Apple Service, said, "Their secretary, Carroll Miller, will doubtless speak for them in this matter."

M. E. Knouse, president of Knouse Foods, held that "whatever prompted the citation, it is based on a complete misconception of the work of Appalachian Apple, and the relationship of the processors with it."

No Attempt At Restraint

"The relationship between the processors and growers through Appalachian Apple has always been along constructive lines, there has never been any attempt, or even suggestion, of restraint of trade. There never has been any effort to take any advantage of the close relationship between processor and growers fostered by the meetings of the growers with the processors. There has never been any attempt to set prices—each processor has been free to use his own best judgment, and each one has."

"The activities of Appalachian Apple and its relationship with the processors has been educational in nature. Appalachian Apple, a growers' organization, has attempted to promote the sale of apples. As processors we are interested in the sale of apple products as well. We have met together and discussed our common problems, and each has come to understand the other better."

"As an example of the misconceptions which apparently have caused the citation, the charge states that the processors formed a committee to call these meetings. The processors have never been anything but guests at the Appalachian Apple sessions. The growers organized the meetings and then invited the processors to attend as guests. The meetings have been helpful to both growers and processors, because they usually produce much information on the fruit outlook, the potential crop, the situation in other fruit sections, the crop locally and details of the nature of the market. Thus all had much more information on which to base his own final decisions. But there has never been any attempt to influence any individual decisions or restrain trade."

Dr. Heim To Speak In Harrisburg Sept. 30

"Let The Lord Live" is the subject of Dr. Ralph D. Heim, who will be the main speaker at the Greater Harrisburg observance of the completion of the Revised Standard Version of the Bible on Tuesday, September 30, at 7:30 p.m. in the Education Building Forum. Dr. Heim is professor of Christian Education and English Bible at the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary.

In addition to having had pastoral experience in Chicago, Dr. Heim served on the faculties of Thiel College and Hartwick College before going to Gettysburg. He is also a member of many national committees of his denomination and of interdenominational groups, including the World Council of Christian Education.

Harrisburg's observance will be one of more than 3,000 such events throughout the United States and Canada. At each of these there will be five gift Bibles, especially inscribed, presented to outstanding Christian leaders in the community in which the meeting is being held.

Offer North Adams Pupils Insurance
Students in North Adams Joint School system may obtain a blanket scholastic accident insurance policy at a cost of $1 per student per year. Wilbur Cassel, supervising principal of the schools, announced today.
Last year the school system had a policy covering only travel to and from school in which about one-half of the 543 students participated. The new policy covers any accident while a student or teacher is in the process of going to or from school, while at the school, or taking part in school activities such as band events, and participating in various sports, other than football.
The policy will pay fees of physicians, surgeons and nurses, ambulance and hospital bills up to $1,000 in connection with accidents, will pay up to $200 for dental bills in connection with accidents and pays up to $7,500 for loss of limbs, and $1,000 for loss of life.
Supervising Principal Cassel announced that complete details of the plan will be given to the children, to be turned over to the parents, on Monday. The effective date of the policy will be October 6. At least 100 must participate by paying the $1 fee before the insurance will be effective for the group.

YANKS SHUT OUT BY SHANTZ; TRIBE BEATS DETROIT; DODGERS GAIN

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's almost home for the Dodgers in the National League, a real dog-fight in the American and a couple of managers can take bows today as prophets senior grade.

"We won't blow it again," predicted Brooklyn's Manager Charley Dressen. Today his hirings, refusing to panic, are four full games ahead of the miracle-less New York Giants with eight games to play.

"If we didn't have to face that Philadelphia pitching I'd say we'd win the pennant, but now it looks tough," said Casey Stengel, wrinkled old master of the World Champion New York Yankees.

Stengel got that taste of Athletics' pitching last night in diminutive Bobby Shantz, who shut out the Yankees 2-0 for his 24th victory while Cleveland was pelting hapless Detroit, 4-1.

These developments left the Yankees with only a game and a half margin over the pursuing Indians, with pressure getting stronger.

The Dodgers fattened their National League advantage by winning a weird, rain-plagued game from Boston, 4-2, while the Giants were bowing to the Philadelphia Phillies, 1-0.

Kellner Vs. Lopat

The Yankees today must tackle another good Athletics' pitcher, Alex Kellner, while the Indians are sending their 21-game winner, Mike Garcia, against the last place Tigers.

Stengel at first announced he'd send his ace, Allie Reynolds, an 18-game winner, against the Athletics in the second game of the three-game series but after last night's loss shifted to steady Ed Lopat, who has a 9-5 record.

Brooklyn hopes to solidify its position at Boston with Carl Erskine (13-6) on the mound against the veteran Warren Spahn (14-17). The Giants, having used Sal Maglie last night, send young Al Corvin against the Phillies' Robin Roberts, the winningest pitcher in baseball at 25-7.

Victory For Simons

It was a bizarre day, matinee and evening, which blew the National League race open and put some tight hinges on the one in the American.

A first inning error sent the Giants down to defeat. Clint Hartung dropped a fly ball with let Richie Ashburn get on base and a few moments later Del Ennis brought Ashburn home with a single for the only run of the game.

Curt Simmons, the southpaw fireballer, won his 13th victory for the Phillies against eight defeats while Maglie, winner of 17, dropped his eighth.

Rain Stopped Game

A wild pitch by the Braves' Max Surkont and a mental lapse by outfielder Sam Jethroe contributed to Brooklyn's triumph at Boston.

With the score tied at 2-2, Surkont threw wildly to Billy Morgan and Roy Campanella raced home with the tie-breaking run. Another run was added before the Dodgers' half-inning was ended under threatening skies.

Both runs would have been nullified and the game reverted back to the seventh if Jethroe hadn't been a bit too anxious on a pitch. With the count two balls and one strike, Jethroe hit the next pitch for an infield out just as a torrential rain swept down on the field. That pitch was the last of the game, since the contest was called shortly afterwards. If he'd taken the pitch or stalled momentarily, it would have been a deadlock.

Fifth Shutout

Shantz, vest pocket portside, registered his fifth shutout of the season against the Yankees and stretched his string of scoreless innings against the champions to 29. Only four Yankees got safeties and six of them went down swinging at the little pitcher's jughandle curve.

He pitched himself out of holes in the second and fourth inning when he loaded the bases. His victim was Vic Raschi, longtime Athletics' nemesis. Dave Philley accounted for the two A's runs with a triple in the third. Manager Jimmy Dykes of the A's was tossed out of the game for protesting a strike call in the seventh.

Wynn And Doby

Early Wynn's 22nd pitching victory and Larry Doby's 31st home run were the big factors in Cleveland's triumph over Detroit. Wynn hurled an eight-hitter in subduing the docile Tigers. Doby's home run came in the first inning to send the Indians off to a strong lead.

In other National League games, the St. Louis Cardinals downed the Chicago Cubs, 5-3, and Cincinnati topped Pittsburgh, 4-3.

The Washington Senators won the only other American League game when rookie Mike Fornieles throttled the Boston Red Sox, 5-3.

Ferris Fain of the Philadelphia Athletics is the only American League first baseman to play regularly at that position with the same club during the past five seasons

Last Half Surge Gives CHS 33-7 Triumph Over Delone For Second Win Of Campaign

After being outplayed for more than half of the game, the Gettysburg High School gridgers put on a garrison finish to lace Delone 33-7 here Friday evening before approximately 2,800 fans for their second straight victory of the young season.

Until midway in the third period it looked as though the Squires would pull an upset as the score stood at 7-7 with the invaders dominating play. From that point it was all Gettysburg.

Early in the first period Dick Ray recovered a Delone fumble on the visitors' 35-yard line to pave the way for the initial score. After Ronnie Williams, who was the Warriors' most consistent ground gainer in the first half, picked up three yards on a line back, Wayne Tonsel got around left end and streaked to the 2-yard line. Williams then plunged through for the score after 5:35 minutes had elapsed. Bill Knox's placement struck an upright but careened through for the point.

Sparked by the hard running of Wilb Noel, Jake Miller and Charley Hemler, Delone reeled off three straight first downs after returning the kickoff to its 44 and reached Gettysburg's 19 before the Warriors finally braced and took over on the 22.

the second period from where the Squires moved for their score. Staub hurled a pass to Tom E. Smith for a first down on the 25. Tom G. Smith hit tackle for two yards and then Ray dumped Jake Miller for a one-yard loss. Tom E. Smith on two plunges picked up a first down on the five. An off-side penalty against the visitors merely staved off a score as Miller circled right end to the 6-inch mark from where Big Tom Smith smashed through. Miller added the point when he slid through the right side of the line to knot the score at 7-7.

Delone took the second half kickoff and reeled off three straight first downs on the fine end runs of Noel to move deep into Gettysburg territory. The Warriors braced and stopped the visitors' cold, finally taking over on their own 47 when a lateral misused for the invaders was recovered by Jim Skinner.

Williams and Tonsel picked up a first down on the Delone 34. Two more tries by Williams was good for another first down on the 99. Delone's hard charging forward wall broke through to toss Tonsel back to the 35 on two successive plays. Fisel, trapped on a pass play, raced 13 yards before being dropped. Fisel then connected on a long pass to Skinner on the 2. Williams cracked through center from the 2 and again Knox converted.

Miller Breaks Loose

Bobby Miller came up with the longest run of the evening a short time later. Delone, failing to gain, kicked to the Gettysburg 39. On the first play Miller shot through the line, broke into the clear and raced 61 yards for the score with but half a minute of the period remaining. Knox booted his third point.

The Warriors took complete command thereafter. Miller's punt for Delone early in the final period shot off to the side to give Gettysburg the ball on the Squires' 39. Tonsel was stopped and after an off-side penalty Miller went off-tackle for 11 yards. He then streaked 35 yards through the left side of the line for his second TD. Knox's boot for the point was wide.

Following the next kickoff Delone took to the air and after failing on a game on last down lost the ball to the home team on the Squires' 40. Tonsel picked up three yards on a line thrust before Fisel fired a long pass to Stanton Musser on the five from where he raced over. Again the kick for the point was wide.

Thereafter jayvees from both squads poured onto the field to finish out the game.

The Squires outgained the Warriors in first downs 13-12. Through the air the Warriors completed three of eight with the visitors connecting on four of a like number of tries.

Gettysburg's triumph marked its fourth and third in a row over the Squires who have won eight in the 12-game series. The 33-point total was the highest ever recorded by either team.

CANNERS LOSE 25-0 DECISION TO CARLISLE

A potent Carlisle High School football team crushed Biglerville 25-0 Friday night at Carlisle before about 4,000 spectators, a 92-yard touchdown run on the opening kickoff by Ben Beittel, Carlisle back, putting the Canners in a hole from which they never escaped.

Later in the same period the Thundering Herd moved 53 yards in seven plays for its second TD. Dick Smith racing over from the 16, Coulson booted his lone extra point following the score.

A Canner fumble, recovered by Carlisle in the second quarter, paved the way for the Herd's third score. The fumble was recovered on Biglerville's 33 and the drive wound up with Hodge tallying from the nine.

The final touchdown of the evening came in the third period when Carlisle rolled from midfield into pay dirt, Hoffer smacking through the left side of the line from the 20.

The Canners, out-manned and out-weighted, gave a scrappy performance but simply were out-classed.

Next week the upper countians will attempt to get back into the win column at Columbia.

Eastern League

READING, Pa. (AP)—A three-time loser to Binghamton during the regular Eastern League season, Roberto Vargas of the Reading Indians today was labelled playoff poison by the Triplets.

The southpaw gave up only five hits as Reading beat Binghamton, 3-1, last night, in the third game of their best-of-seven series for the Governor's Cup. The Triplets won the first two.

The teams tangle here again tonight.

Interstate

By The Associated Press

Hagerstown's Braves and Lancaster's Red Roses, all tied up at 2-2 in the Interstate League final playoffs, will have another try at playing their fifth game tonight at Lancaster.

For the second time this week the two teams had their game rained out. Pitchers for the final have not been announced. The final two games in the best of seven series will be played at Hagerstown—should both be needed.

Fifty from High School to Help Pick Apples: While Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary students and faculty members led by Dr. Abdel Ross Wentz will go into county orchards Monday afternoon to help harvest Adams County's apple crop, about 50 Gettysburg high school girls and boys made applications for emergency certificates under which they may go to work Tuesday morning with their absence from school legally excused.

Classes at the high school continue, with evening classes offered to the apple pickers to help them keep up with their studies. Biglerville High School is operating on a short session schedule while Fairfield and East Berlin high schools are closed. Arendtsville High School will close next week.

To Erect New Spotter Post on Bank Roof: Lawrence M. Sheads, sub-district Civil Director of the Aircraft Warning Service, announced that an aircraft spotter station would be set up on the roof of the First National Bank building and that volunteers to man the station are being sought. The new post will be in operation 24 hours a day, Mr. Sheads said.

Temple Leases Lee — Meade Inn to Train Pilots: Temple University, Philadelphia, has leased the Lee-Meade Inn, two miles south of Gettysburg, for the duration of the war. Joseph H. Chamberlain, proprietor, announced on Sunday, a few hours before he left for Lake Alfred, Florida, where he will spend the winter. Mr. Chamberlain said that Temple University took over the inn for the purpose of housing 30 to 40 students who are enrolled in the Civilian Pilot Training Course and who are denied flying instructions at Philadelphia because the area is within the restricted zone for flying.

Clarence Fritz will continue to operate the Lee-Meade service station.

Early Morning Blaze Damages Wentz Building: Twelve occupants of five apartments in the R. W. Wentz building, Baltimore St., were driven out of their living quarters by fire early Tuesday morning which threatened the entire structure but was confined by Gettysburg firemen to the third floor.

Fire Chief James A. Aumen said that the blaze, discovered about 1:25 a.m., may have been caused by defective wiring and apparently started in the enclosed porch of the third-floor apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wentz. Chief Aumen estimated the damage to the building at about $3,000. Most of the occupants of the apartments were awakened by the crackling and roar of the flames, by the odor of smoke and by the barking of Borough Officer Horace L. Bender's pet dog.

All of the occupants reached safety without mishap, although Harold Wentz had difficulty in reaching the bed of his four-year-old son, Gary.

Carter — Slarry: Miss Betty J. Slarry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Slarry, 125 N. Stratton St., and Pvt. Robert L. Carter, Fort Monmouth, New Jersey, son of Mrs. Bernetta Olinger, 2 York St., were united in marriage last Saturday in the parsonage of the Trinity Lutheran Church, Taneytown, by the Rev. Alfred T. Sutcliffe.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rupp, Sachs apartments, York St., were the attendants.

Randall — Wirick: Announcement has just been made of the marriage of Joseph C. Randall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Randall, Littlestown, and Florence M. Wirick, Johnstown. They were united in marriage by the Rev. Father Robert E. Hannon, in Winchester, Virginia, on January 3, 1941.

SILENT FRIENDS

Be kind to that book which you may hold in your hand. It is a friend! It may contain some part of you within its covers. Many a one is a silent adviser, consultant, and kindly critic. Many a one has changed the entire way of life for the one who scans its pages.

You never need to be friendless if you gain the habit of gathering about you these silent friends — books. Books once were men and women. The choicest substance of their lives may be detected there. When you are lonely, troubled, or "blue," reach for one of these silent friends and invite them into your heart. Conan Doyle called the door into his library "The Magic Door." I often think of the door into my library as such — it has performed so many miracles for me!

The love of books cannot be cultivated too early. The earlier the better! When all other friends have failed you, you can still have and hold — your books. They will comfort and inspire you. You can take them with you at no expense. They will never start an unhappy argument. They will remain silent, even when you may differ with what they have to say, or reveal. There are those that will soothe you in times of trouble, and those that will uplift your spirit when all other means fail.

Great books scatter their substance when their authors have long been dust and gathered to Mother Earth who gave them life. You will never be alone if you have a treasured book near at hand. Books lead to no delusions. They point you to the main road — if you are wise in your choice of them — just like a human guide in the flesh.

Never begrudge a book space in your home! It would be best to increase that space, continually throughout life. You never know when some particular book will come to your aid to give comfort, hope, or to act as a blessing. Books have often changed a life. They have often contributed to the making of a happy and successful life.

ENTER AUTUMN

The summer ends and fall begins. Fruit laden are the orchard trees.

The grain is gathered in the bins And nature settles back at ease.

The mother of the fertile soil Has conquered storm and parching heat, And now to glorify her toil With beauty makes her task complete.

No sign of drudgery she displays; If tired, no reason to complain, ablaze, Proud of her service once again.

Oh, would that man, his courage spent, Before the final call he hears, Could settle back and be content With his achievements down the years.

PRESS PROBE OF
2 BUS CRASHES;
AWAIT INQUEST

GREENSBURG, Pa. (U. P.)—State police and Westmoreland County authorities pressed investigations Friday into two tragic bus crashes less than 24 hours apart which killed six persons and injured 76. At a conference between state police and Dist. Atty. L. Alexander Sculco yesterday, it was decided not to take any action—pending a coroner's inquest—against either the driver or engineer involved in the bus-train tragedy at Collinsburg.

Four high school pupils were killed and 47 others injured in the disastrous wreck Wednesday. Six of the injured still are in serious condition. Four have not regained consciousness.

Driver Posts Bond
Alfred Wicklem of Hickory, driver of a Greyhound bus which rammed the rear of a big truck on the Pennsylvania Turnpike near the Donegal Interchange Thursday posted $3,000 bond for his appearance at a coroner's inquest. No charges have been filed.

The bond was ordered by Coroner Joseph R. Check of Westmoreland County. No date has been set for the inquest.

Killed in the turnpike crash were Mrs. Mollie Allen, 81, of Nathalia, Va., and Mrs. Florence Allen, 75, of Louisville, Ky. They were widowed sisters-in-law.

Twenty-eight other passengers and the bus driver was hurt. Eighteen were released from Somerset Community Hospital after treatment, including Wicklem. Six are in serious condition at Frick Memorial Hospital in Mt. Pleasant.

Li. J. C. Grey of the state police said investigation of the school bus collision is being pushed hard but that it "will be quite some time before we can pull together all the loose ends." He added:

Have Nothing Definite
"At present we have nothing definite to determine the cause of the accident."

Coroner Check said he will hold an inquest sometime next week, possibly Thursday.

The bus driver, Edward Steiner, 22, of Dawson, is in Monessen-Charleroi Hospital with a broken leg and other injuries. Both he and P. M. Goldsboro, engineer of the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie freight train which plowed into the rear of the bus loaded with Rostraver Township High School pupils, said a heavy fog hung over the area.

TV PICTURE
TRAPS BUTCHER

LANCASTER, Pa. (U. P.)—A picture flashed on a television screen resulted in the arrest of a butcher who had been sought by the Federal Bureau of Investigation for seven months on charges he defrauded the U. S. government.

The FBI said a picture of Albertus Reed Bollacker, 41, was shown by station WGAL-TV on a program put on twice weekly in cooperation with the government agency.

Indicted In January

Within a few hours Lancaster police and the FBI each received a telephone call from television viewers who said they recognized the picture as that of a butcher in a Lancaster supermarket.

Police said Bollacker was arrested a short time later on a warrant issued following his indictment last Jan. 21 by a federal grand jury in Charleston, S. C. He was charged with a crime on a federal reservation (forgery), fraud against the government and conspiracy. Bollacker failed to appear for a hearing last Jan. 31 and the FBI has been looking for him since then.

The FBI said he was indicted in connection with a reported shortage of $28,500 in the inventory and accounts of the Charleston (S. C.) Naval Base where he had been employed as a butcher.

NEW PILOTLESS SUICIDE PLANE CHEAP ANSWER ON LOW BOMBING

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy today sees in its "pilotless suicide planes" a possible $300 answer to low-level bombing, a special problem that has been costly in lives in Korea.

That $300 is the approximate cost given by a Navy representative for converting a $60,000 obsolete plane—of which the Navy has thousands in mothballs—into a needed weapon in the mountainous terrain of Korea.

This, several Navy representatives said in an interview, is the reason for Navy enthusiasm over the latest news in air warfare—Navy robot planes, equipped with television eyes and a 2,000 pound bomb, which dived onto North Korean targets.

Enemy Fire Effective
Navy representatives explained that the type of fighting in the mountains of Korea means that planes have to fly low to find and strike enemy targets in the valleys. That brings the planes within close range of enemy anti-aircraft fire—and the Navy admits this has been effective.

Navy spokesmen now describe the converted Grumman Helicat fighter, such as was catapulted Sept. 1 from the aircraft carrier Boxer, as so efficient that it can be directed into a railway tunnel. They said this was done with one of the pilotless craft.

The Helicat used in the first combat test lambasted a target 150 miles from the carrier. But Navy representatives said its television-guided robots would have a range of about 900 miles—and need not be within sight of a remote control "mother" plane.

Mrs. Curtis W. Deatrick, R. 2, remaining confined to her room after her return September 11 from the Hanover Hospital where she spent three weeks under observation, having been ill with neuritis for nearly two months. Her cousin, Mrs. Ada Orswell, Hanover, formerly of here, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Deatrick Rea, Scranton, have been assisting at the Deatrick home.

Mr. and Mrs. Newlin C. Jones and children moved last week to the New Oxford area. Barbara and Jimmy Jones are attending the New Oxford borough school.

Calvin W. Deardoff, R. 1, farmer, remains in ill health although able to be about after a severe illness last spring due to grippe, after which he suffered two serious relapses.

Mrs. Deardoff has also been in poor health for some time and continues periodic treatment by a specialist.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Byers and daughters, Donna, Bonna, Victoria and Joyce, who had been living in an apartment at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Dewey Spangler, have moved to another apartment in Abbottstown until their new home south of East Berlin can be built within the coming year.

Mrs. Kathryn Fidler, near Germany Store, has been a patient this week at a Harrisburg Hospital to undergo surgery because of an injury she suffered to her left thumb some time ago while at work in a Dillsburg factory. Mrs. Fidler is in good health again after the major operation she underwent last year at the York Hospital.

Sunday, September 21, has been designated by the Rev. Francis L. Mignot, acting pastor of Paradise Catholic Church, as Communion Sunday for the women of the congregation. The masses will be 7 o'clock at the Rectory chapel and 8:30 in the parish church.

One of the art awards at the York Fair went to the pupils of the Kralltown School taught by Mrs. Mabel Wallace Quickel, R. 1, for water color landscape work.

The Robert H. Alwine family, Hanover, R. 2, formerly of here, spent Sunday in this vicinity to visit friends and also to attend the reunion of the Alwine family at the Adams County Fairgrounds.

The congregation of Paradise Catholic Church is asked to send representatives to the Harrisburg Cathedral on Tuesday morning, September 30, a in there will be celebrated a pontifical high mass to mark the 500th anniversary of the first printing by movable type of the Bible by Johannes Gutenberg.

REBOK ELECTED BY ADVENTISTS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Elder D. E. Rebok, one of the prime movers for coeducation in China, Friday was elected general secretary of the Seventh-Day Adventists at the church's annual autumn council in suburban Takoma Park, Md.

He succeeds Elder E. D. Dick, secretary for 16 years, who resigned to become president of the Seventh-Day Adventist Theological Seminary in Washington.

FAIRFIELD — The Intermediate Troop of the Fairfield Girl Scouts held its first fall meeting Monday evening. A winner roast was held Wednesday evening at the home of Betty and Lorraine Kane. The troop officers elected were as follows: President, Betty Kane; vice president, Jean Sites; treasurer, Lorraine Kane, and troop scribe, Glenda Deardoff. Plans were discussed for a party to be given October 23 in honor of the troop committee. A project in connection with the Hoffman Orphanage has been started. Stuffed toys and Thanksgiving favors will be made.

New members will be accepted at any meeting. To join the Intermediate Troop girls must be at least 10 years old. Meetings are held on Monday evenings from 7 until 8:30 at the scout house. Mrs. John Fehring and Miss Grace McKeever are the local leaders.

Election of officers was held at the first meeting of the Fairfield Girl Scout Troop Committee Thursday evening at the scout house. Mrs. Ira M. Henderson, past president, asked that her name would not be placed as a possible nominee. Mrs. Henderson thanked the members for their past co-operation and stated that she would continue to be a member of the troop committee. Troop committee members gave Mrs. Henderson a rising vote of thanks for her splendid leadership.

Officers elected are as follows: President, Mrs. Harry Kane; vice president, Mrs. William Neely; secretary, Mrs. E. G. Adams; treasurer, Mrs. Clarence Wilson.

A rummage sale, for the benefit of the troop committee, will be held on Friday evening, October 10, and on Saturday morning, October 11, at the scout house. Mrs. Robert Willis, general chairman, appointed the following committee members: Miss Lois Musselman, Mrs. Warren Martin, Mrs. E. G. Adams, Mrs. C. E. Wilson and Mrs. William Neely. Anyone wishing to donate clothing for the rummage sale may bring it to the scout house on Thursday evening, October 9, or may contact any committee member who will call for it.

An invitation to attend a party in honor of the troop committee to be held on Thursday evening, October 23, at the scout house by the Intermediate Scout Troop, was accepted.

A chicken corn soup supper for the benefit of St. Mary's Church will be held Saturday evening, September 27, in the community hall. Serving will start at 4 o'clock.

Miss Pauline Shulley, Miss Nanette Shulley and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wambaugh, all of Reading, were recent guests of Miss Flora Withrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weikert and Mr. and Mrs. James Weikert attended the baseball game between the Yankees and the Washington teams at Washington recently.

The first fall meeting of the Fairfield Youth Club will be held on Thursday evening, September 25, at 7:30 in the community hall. All members are urged to attend. A discussion on the winter's activities, including a dance to be held on the second Friday of every month, will be held. Included in the entertainment for this meeting will be movies. The regular meeting night of the Youth Club is the fourth Thursday of each month. John Fehring is the club leader.

All students and parents of the Fairfield Joint Schools who are interested in securing information about the purchase of band instruments are asked to attend a showing on Tuesday evening, September 23, at 8 o'clock at the high school.

The adult Bible classes of Zion Lutheran Sunday School will serve a roast or fried chicken dinner on Saturday evening, October 11, in the Parish House. Serving will start at 4 o'clock.

The Good News Club of Fairfield, under the leadership of Mrs. Ritchey, Mrs. McClain and Mrs. Hess, will meet each Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Fannie Hartzell. The club, a non-denominational organization, is open to children of all ages. It is planned to spend an hour of story telling, singing and handwork.

The 500 card club met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. William Schultz. Prizes were won by Miss Mary Harbaugh and Mrs. Clarence Wilson. The club will meet Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Robert Musselman.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Hoofnagle and Mrs. Mary Hoofnagle, Baltimore, spent Sunday with Mrs. James Neely.

PLAN NEW VETO
UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Russia's Jacob A. Malik announced Friday he will use the veto to block the admission of the three Indo-Chinese countries—Viet Nam, Laos and Cambodia—into the United Nations.

Courty, Pa., Rebok spent 16 years in China, from 1917 to 1933. He set up the China Training Institute at Shanghai, the first vocational and industrial institution in the country. Later he served as president of the Shanghai Missionary College and China Training Institute.

From 1940 to 1943, Rebok was president of Southern Junior College at Chattanooga, Tenn., and for the next eight years served as president of the denomination's theological seminary here.

One trouble with safety is that so many back-seat drivers have come forward to take the wheel.

Rough On The Car
Many a vacationist who has planned to take the car to the shop the day after returning home from the big trip of the year finds his good intentions badly punctured by need for getting back into the routine. Here is where the car really suffers. Already handicapped by things that need attention it is suddenly thrown right back into home service and can easily develop serious illness.

It isn't easy to guard against this. I do not know as I have the answer here. But perhaps it will help to make a list of the things that need attention and then call up the service people to make an appointment. Also helpful in overcoming procrastination is taking a look at the map used for the trip just to remind yourself how far, and how faithfully, the car has behaved. More cars are damaged by post-vacation neglect than the world fully realizes.

High on the list of needed attentions are such matters as taking up brake shoes, an oil change, a good greasing, a check-up on the ignition, cleaning the dust-laden air cleaner, inspecting the tires, shock absorbers and springs, and usually a front-end alignment.

Take Fading Into Account
One thing to remember when buying touch-up paints to check spread of damage to the car's finish is the matter of fade. Seldom will the original color be right for a touch-up. Fortunately touch-up parts are sold in small bottles with their color sampled on the outside so that you can hold this against the car's present hue and make a more accurate selection.

Favored For Carbon
One of the unfortunate things about the modern automobile engine is that it is not uniformly cooled. This fact can be helpful in understanding why carbon deposits are not uniform within the cylinders. Invariably the cylinder just behind the fan is the one that accumulates more carbon because it is over-cooled. It also is likely to get a less vaporized mixture during the warming-up period. Naturally the cylinder at the end of the motor block is the one that runs hottest. This is sometimes so pronounced that a cooler type of plug is needed for that spot to check preignition.

In the case of V-engines the first cylinder of each block will run cooler than the others. That means more carbon in these two. Sometimes it means more tendency toward valve stickage in those particular cylinders.

Mechanic Joe Speaking:
"Some of the larger service stations are ribbed for their system of always putting down all orders on paper, but as a seasoned mechanic I think this is a good rule to follow regardless of the size of the shop, or even if the car is just getting a little attention at a filling station. Writing it down saves mistakes, helps the mechanic remember what you want done, and gives you a record of what has been checked. Often you can add a note of warning that will save trouble."

"For instance, one owner who ordered a greasing warned against lubricating the water pump, this particular part having been over-greased with month before. Normally a lubrication man would not skip any particular unit."

Hands Off This One
I think one of the car manufacturers is justified in warning owners not to tamper with the current regulator unless fortified with special equipment and knowledge, which few automobilists have these days. Penalty for tampering is an under or over-charged battery, not to mention possible damage to the regulator and the generator as well. Also stressed by the industry is the fact that in more instances than anyone would suspect the regulator isn't at all to blame for what goes wrong with the electrical system, or what seems to be going wrong. Often what throws owners into tail spin of worry is merely evidence that the electrical system is normally acting in a way that serves to compensate for some abnormal electrical condition, often temporary.

Lessons Come High
If you don't believe what I've said about not tampering with the current regulator let me tell you about a friend who decided against his better judgment to fuss with something he didn't understand. It looked like a very easy job to remove the cover, yet when he did so he failed to observe the rule against allowing this to touch the regulator parts. As a result the cover caused a short circuit and damaged the assembly.

Need Driving Guidance
Virginia motorists have been helped by copies of a little prayer for automobile drivers which were presented by the State Daughters of the American Revolution to the Virginia State Police for distribution. It reminds me to mention the fact that I'll be glad to send a copy of a similar prayer to any reader who feels the need for divine guidance in the maze of modern traffic. I believe that the card which I have already presented to many drivers is especially effective because it stresses the point that God Himself is the true operator of the car since nothing can be done successfully without His knowledge and consent.

Brief But Interesting
Just how noisy and annoying an exhaust leak can be depends largely on where it is in the exhaust system. . . . Squealing in a front wheel when going into a curve may be due, not to the tires, but to a damaged wheel bearing. . . . Some of the noise heard in the rear end of cars when in off the normal flat position may be due to the exhaust pipe hitting against it some part of the frame. . . . A lot of tail-light trouble is due to need for cleaning the sockets and making sure that they hold their lamps tightly.

Carburetor To The Fore
Welcomed by motorists who like to see what goes on inside their cars are the new carburetors which have glass float bowls. Here the action, or misbehavior, of the float mechanism can be closely watched, resulting in better carburetion. Another innovation is replaceable metering parts. This eliminates need for rebuilding or replacing the complete unit, the service man merely taking out the old jet section and replacing it with a brand new one at a marked savings in expense and time. Observers note that with the introduction of flatter carburetors and air cleaners designed to surround the carburetor there should be an incentive to design cars with lower hoods. Previously it has been the carburetor plus its air cleaner that has worked against any such change in hood height.

What's Your Trouble?
Q. I notice that after I make a quick stop, and then try to accelerate, the engine stumbles a bit. I have checked the float level of the carburetor. The ignition has also been checked. There is no valve stickage. Wm. J. H.

A. You may be forgetting that sharp deceleration is disturbing to the fuel system. On your car it may not be possible to correct this faltering because the float of the carburetor is disturbed. Newer carburetors are designed to meet this problem — also the problem of stalling during sharp acceleration.

Q. When is it necessary to replace the oil in the fluid drive unit? K. B.

A. In the simple fluid on your car the oil need not be changed unless service work is done on the unit. Just check to see that you keep the fluid level up to normal.

Q. When I touch the horn button I hear a clicking around even though the horns operate normally enough. Do you think this indicates that the horns need service of some sort? R. F. F.

A. What you hear is the contact points of the horn relay. This is the device which permits the horn circuit to operate a deceleration circuit from the battery to the horns. The horns get more current this way.

Q. Why is it that waxing my car fails to give desired results? It doesn't seem as bright as it was before, and it is badly spotted and streaked. L. B. B.

A. Sounds like you are waxing over the old wax or some other preservative, or that the surface isn't polished and cleaned. To get a good wax job it is necessary to polish the surface first.

Q. I have just had the brakes relined. Noticed that the rear brake lining was worn much more than that on the front wheels. Why this difference in a system that is supposed to be equalized? N. K.

A. Apparently the rear brakes had less clearance. I notice in your letter that you say this car was bought second hand. Possibly the front brake shoes were relined following leakage of wheel bearing grease into one of the drums. Q. We can't seem to find out what is causing excessive backlash in the rear axle of my car. All the usual things have been checked. I'm not surprised at the looseness because the car has been driven a lot over rough roads, but we'd like to find the answer. J. K. M.

A. I'll bet you haven't checked for loose U-bolts in the rear springs.

Q. Just how long is it safe to

IKE DEFENDS RUNNING MATE

ABOARD THE EISENHOWER SPECIAL (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower defended Sen. Richard M. Nixon of California today as a "honest man" in the political furor over the disclosure concerning Nixon's non-official California expense account.

James Hagerty, Eisenhower's press secretary, called newsmen aboard the campaign special train together as the train approached Nebraska City to read them this statement:

"I have long admitted and applauded Sen. Nixon's American faith, and his determination to drive Communist sympathizers from offices of public trust.

"There has recently been leveled against him a charge of unethical practices. I believe Dick Nixon to be an honest man. I am confident that he will place all the facts before the American people fairly and squarely.

Jail Firemen Who Set Thrill Blazes

MEDIA, Pa. (AP)—Three youthful volunteer firemen who admitted setting 21 fires for "a thrill" have been given sentences ranging from 10 to 60 years in Eastern Penitentiary by President Judge Harold L. Ervin.

The estimated damage which resulted from the fires set to barns, vacant dwellings and automobiles was $400,000.

Those sentenced Thursday were: Carl Michael Heffron, 28, 30 to 60 years; Thomas Vincent Shaveny, 19, 20 to 40 years, and Robert Harry Wegmann, 27, 10 to 30 years. All are from Springfield Township in Delaware County and were members of the Springfield Township Volunteer Fire Co.

"I intend to talk with him at the earliest time we can reach each other by telephone."

Hagerty told newsmen the first opportunity Eisenhower would have to contact Nixon would be when the train reaches Kansas City later today.

GOP CRITICISM OF STEVENSON ANSWERED BY SHOWER OF DIGS

By RICHARD MORRIS
SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (P)—Gov. Adlai Stevenson replied Friday to Republican criticism of his political glibness with a new barrage of quips, taunts and jabs.
He heaped loads of ridicule on the Republicans—but his jokes were designed to prove his basic campaign arguments.
Moving through New England, the Democratic presidential candidate told an audience in a prepared speech at Springfield, that the GOP has not one affirmative campaign issue.

Find New Issue
So, he said satirically, they have been hunting one:
"After long, smoke-filled sessions and tense high strategy meetings, the Republican high command has finally decided what the great issue of the campaign is.
"To my considerable surprise, they are now considering the central issue of our time is humor!"
His GOP presidential opponent, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, recently said a presidential campaign "is no laughing matter," and implied Stevenson is making light of serious matters.
"Grouchy Old Pessimists"
Stevenson said the initials, GOP stand for "Grouchy Old Pessimists."
Sen. Robert A. Taft—who Stevenson claims has forced Eisenhower into an "object surrender"—is the only happy man in the Republican ranks now, the governor said.
"Judging by the pictures, Sen. Taft seemed vastly entertained by their recent conversation in New York. I have never seen such a contented smile since the cat swallowed the canary."
Stevenson's speech here indicated he believes he has stung the Republicans with his incessant derision.

Ethics Above Party
The governor spoke Thursday at Hartford, Conn., where 3,500 people filled to capacity the Bushnell Auditorium.
There—and he was not joking—he said: "In recent weeks, my distinguished opponent has adopted the singular theory that a candidate for president should support all state and local candidates on his party ticket—good, bad, indifferent or worse, and regardless of their views and records."
His own view, he said, is that: "Win or lose, I will not accept the proposition that party regularity is more important than political ethics."
These appeared to be references to Eisenhower's endorsement of Sen. William Jenner of Indiana who called Gen. George Marshall "a front for traitors." Eisenhower had previously defended Marshall strongly.
The closing half of the Hartford talk dealt with atomic energy, the A-bomb, and the implications of both on peace and war. He said "the atomic adventure transcends all partisan issues," and added the Democrats, win or lose in the election, would work with the Republicans "to follow this adventure to the end of peace and plenty for mankind."
Apart from general campaign issues, Stevenson talked to the Springfield audience about the special, regional problems of New England.

EMERGENCY AIR STRIP WILL BE NEAR TURNPIKE
HARRISBURG (P)—Construction of the first emergency landing air strip along the Pennsylvania Turnpike will be completed by the end of October, the State Department of Property and Supplies forecast Friday.
The strip, 3,000 feet long and 150 feet wide, is near Burnt Cabins, Pa., in Fulton County. It is the first of five planned along the toll road by the State Aeronautics Commission to aid fliers in distress.
"Progress has been satisfactory in every respect since the contractor began work Sept. 2," said W. B. Jeffers, director of the department's Bureau of Construction.
Said by Oct. 15
"The contractor thinks he will have the plot seeded by Oct. 15," he added.
John W. MacFarlane, acting executive director of the Aeronautics Commission, termed the progress on the first strip as "rapid."
"We expect it to be in use next spring," he said.
The strip is being built by the Wenger Brothers Construction Co., Lancaster, at a total cost of $34,705.
MacFarlane said the commission "intends to build the strips 'one at a time' in order to observe their use and install possible changes."
The commission has not bought land for the other strips but has announced three will be located in the Allegheny Mountains between Washington and Lewis. The fifth will be near Gettysburg.

During 18 years of riding, the mounts of John Linus (Pony) McAttee reeled $2,425,000.

Open Bids October 7 On State Tax Notes

HARRISBURG (P)—The Commonwealth will open bids Oct. 7 on 80 million dollars of tax anticipation notes to finance government operations until tax revenues are received next spring.
The notes will be issued on Oct. 14 and must be redeemed by May 29, 1953, the close of the present fiscal period.
The notes will be issued under a state law permitting that short term method of temporary financing. The state last November issued 60 million dollars in tax anticipation notes and redeemed them on May 30.
The state constitution prohibits the state from borrowing more than one million dollars without approval of the voters but the courts ruled tax anticipation notes were exempt from that provision since they are redeemed in the same biennium.

DEMOCRATS ARE CLOSING WESTERN TOUR

PITTSBURGH (P)—Pennsylvania Democratic candidates went to Greene County Friday to wind up the Western Pennsylvania portion of their state campaign tour.
At a well-attended rally in Pittsburgh Thursday, former Judge Guy K. Bard, senatorial nominee, said his Republican opponent, Sen. Edward Martin, "has opposed practically everything Gen. Eisenhower claims to represent." Bard added:
"If the people of Pennsylvania should decide they want the things . . . Martin represents, then I think he is as qualified as anyone to give them. . . I don't believe they do."
"I don't believe they (the people) want Taft-Hartley. . . isolationism (or) . . . any part of the reactionary philosophy of government which their senior senator has so steadfastly adhered to in the senatorial roll call."

Mayor Lawrence Speaks
Mayor David L. Lawrence of Pittsburgh spoke after Bard and attacked the Republican choice of Eisenhower for a presidential candidate. The mayor said:
"Everybody likes Ike as a great general and a great American who served his country. What's disturbing America today is what does Ike like?"
Miss Genevieve Blatt, Democratic candidate for auditor general, spoke at the same rally and said:
"It is certainly time for the good citizen, regardless of party, to pay some attention to his state government in Pennsylvania."
She said Gov. John S. Fine campaigned in 1950 on the boast no new taxes would be needed in 1951—then asked for 163 million dollars in new taxes, including an income tax. She added:
"A good way for citizens to pay attention to state government is to elect a Democratic state treasurer and auditor general who would open the state books to public inspection."

The Lutheran World Relief's Annual Thanksgiving Clothing Appeal will be held from Nov. 23 to 30, it has been announced by Bernard A. Confer, administrative secretary of the material aid agency. Mr. Confer urged the 10,000 congregations of the participating bodies in the National Lutheran Council to make immediate plans for collecting clothing during Thanksgiving week.
Last year, the Lutherans of America contributed about one and a quarter million pounds of clothing in the campaign.

The Central place of the Holy Bible in Christian Education will be considered by more than 2,000 leaders of all Protestant denominations at the 90th annual Pennsylvania Sunday School Convention, to be held in Harrisburg, October 8-10, it was announced here today by John D. Duff, president of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association, sponsor of the gathering.

"The Word of Life; Know It! Live It!" will be the theme of the three-day event, which each year brings together ministers, Sunday school teachers and officers, and other church workers in the field of Christian education. Because the Revised Standard Version of the Holy Bible will be issued the week prior to the convention, the 1952 convocation has special significance.
At the opening session in Pine Street Presbyterian Church, Bishop Fred L. Dennis of Dayton, Ohio, Evangelical United Brethren Church, will preach the convention sermon.
Dr. Adiel R. Wentz, past president of the Lutheran Seminary and Dr. Ralph D. Feim, member of the seminary faculty, head the list of distinguished speakers.

Variety Is Shown In Electric Cycles

MINNEAPOLIS (P)—You can find almost any kind of electricity if you look far enough, say the scientists in an engineering laboratory (Minneapolis - Honeywell) here.
Most U. S. electricity is 60-cycle, but you can find 25-cycle at one place in India — and across the street it's 50-cycle. The Isle of Capri has 42-cycle, Gibraltar, 7 and Cairo 40 or 50.
So the laboratory here, part of a company which makes automatic controls, has machines which will make electricity with any desired cycle. They use it to test control devices designed for export.

Russia And Its Satellites Illegally Hold Millions Of Persons In Many Slave Camps

WASHINGTON (P)—The State Department spread on the record today a mass of evidence that the Soviet Union and its satellites have millions of captives in slave labor camps.
With President Truman's endorsement the department made public a 69-page report rounding up official documents, testimony of refugees and other evidence in support of this conclusion:
"The number of slave laborers in the Soviet Union and its satellites runs into the millions and represents the most extreme violation of human rights on the face of the earth today."

It was a detailed summary of evidence prepared for a special fact-finding committee of the United Nations and the International Labor Organization. The committee held hearings at New York in June, and is due to resume sessions next month at Geneva, Switzerland.
International Report
The summary was put together with the help of the American Federation of Labor and the Congress of Industrial Organizations, working through the International Confederation of Free Trade Unions.
With only a passing reference to other forms of Communist coercion the State Department declared that the evidence showed:

1. Forced labor has been continuous throughout the existence of the Soviet system and has grown into a vast institution since Deputy Premier V. M. Molotov told a 1931 Soviet Congress at Moscow:
"We have never attempted to conceal that in certain operations we use the labor of prisoners who are healthy and capable of labor. We have done this in the past, we are doing it now, and we shall do it in the future."

Millions Are Enslaved
2. Although the exact number of prisoners is a Soviet state secret, calculations range from two million to 20 million, and are far above what the prison population should be by non-Communist, and even czarist Russia standards.
3. The prisoners are largely political offenders or persons guilty of minor derelictions. Common criminals are a small minority and are allowed to dominate, even terrorize, the others.
4. Many are given sentences of up to five years by the secret police without court trials.
5. The concentration camps are "places of brutal punishment" regardless of the Soviet theory that penal institutions have the purpose of re-educating their inmates.
6. Forced labor is a significant feature of the Soviet economy. A Soviet economic plan for 1941, pages of which the department reproduced, assigned 14 per cent of work like timbering, mining, and railway, highway and canal construction to slave laborers—a higher percentage than to any other agency.
7. In practice, innocent persons are forcibly recruited for the labor gangs because of the demand for forced labor.

8. Czechoslovakia, Bulgaria and the other Eastern European satellites, and Red China have patterned similar systems after that of the Soviet Union. It was estimated there are currently at least 35 labor camps in Bulgaria, 179 in Czechoslovakia, 79 in Hungary and 21 or more in Communist Poland.

SELL BONDS TO EXTEND STATE
TUNNEL ROAD
HARRISBURG (P)—Plans for extending the Pennsylvania Turnpike another 33 miles from King of Prussia to the Delaware River moved another step toward completion today.

The Turnpike Commission announced sale of 65 million dollars worth of tax-exempt revenue bonds to finance the project running through Montgomery and Bucks Counties north of Philadelphia.

The bonds went to a syndicate of investment bankers headed by Drexel and Co., V. J. Van Ingen and Co., Blythe and Co., Inc., and the first Boston Corp.

Construction of the new addition to the present 327 mile toll road is due to start in the fall. It will terminate at the Delaware River near Edgely, Bucks County, and later will connect via a bridge with the New Jersey Turnpike.

The bond sale included 15 million dollars of bonds bearing a 2 1/2 per cent interest rate due on June 1, 1970, and 50 million dollars worth at three per cent interest due June 1, 1982.

PUBLIC SAFETY COMMISSION TO BE NAMED SOON

HARRISBURG (P)—A spokesman for Gov. John S. Fine said Friday the long-delayed creation of the Pennsylvania Public Safety Commission will be fulfilled "very shortly."

The 1951 Legislature authorized establishment of the 15-member agency which will correlate state safety laws—ranging from highway to industrial and mine to farm—in cooperation with local governments.

Fine himself signed the bill last January but has not as yet made the appointments.

The spokesman, who declined use of his name, said the final barrier is the choice of a public safety director, a paid official who would carry out the policies of the commission.

Probable Members
The spokesman said members of the commission will include the governor himself in an ex officio capacity; Otto F. Messner, revenue secretary; E. L. Schmidt, highways secretary; Harold Scragg, chairman of the Public Utility Commission; John W. MacFarlane, executive director of the Pennsylvania Aeronautics Commission; Col. C. M. Wilhelm, state police commissioner; David M. Walker, secretary of labor and industry; Richard Maize, mines secretary; Miles Horst, agriculture secretary; Artemas C. Leslie, insurance com-lar but longer beams for the roof.

missioner; William C. Brown, welfare secretary; Dr. Francis B. Haas, superintendent of public instruction, and T. J. Evans, chairman of the Turnpike Commission. Rep. Allen M. Gibson (R-Warren) also may be named to the agency. The 15th member will be a state senator.

WOOD BEAMS REPLACE STEEL

NORTH BAY, Canada (P)—Timber shortage didn't worry contractors on a new bank building here. To support the floor they used beams made of glued pieces of British Columbia fir, 9 by 16 inches and 20 feet long with similitas C. Leslie, insurance com-lar but longer beams for the roof.

EDITORS SAY EISENHOWER IS LIKELY WINNER

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
NEW YORK (P)—Newspaper editors and political writers over the country consider the probable winner of the presidential election was run off today.

But many newsmen who took part in a nationwide survey conducted by The Associated Press believe large numbers of voters haven't made up their minds. They say it is too soon to tell who may hit the wire first in November.

Where editors say they have spotted present trends toward the GOP, the reasons they mention most frequently are currents of time-for-a-change sentiment and Eisenhower's personal popularity.

In state after state, newsmen believe the general will make a better showing in his bid for an elective office than GOP nominee Thomas E. Dewey did four years ago.

The survey of opinion of editors and correspondents, brought together from surveys that tapped political sentiment at the grass roots in a great majority of the nation's counties, is that Eisenhower would be fairly sure of 155 electoral votes if the vote were taken now.

They believe an additional 12 states are doubtful but would be inclined at this time to go Republican. If Eisenhower collected all their 142 votes, his total would reach 297—29 more than the 266 required to clinch the election.

Newsmen believe that Stevenson, at this point, could be reasonably certain of 12 states with 121 electoral votes and that he might pick up three doubtful ones with 49 votes.

Six On Fence
That adds up to 170 votes—96 short of the 266 mark.
Half a dozen states with 66 votes are regarded by newsmen as on the fence at this time. Even if Stevenson bagged all of those, he wouldn't have enough to win on newspaper scoreboards.

So, as the editors see it, Stevenson will have to smash away in the few weeks remaining before the election at states that now look safe for Eisenhower and those that appear to be wavering toward the general.

But the Illinois governor knows what he is up against, for the survey estimates dovetail with Stevenson's statements soon after he was nominated that the faces an uphill fight, that a desire for a change in Washington is perhaps the biggest hurdle he will have to clear.

Estimates for New England complete the national picture in the AP survey. The composite view of "Down East" editors is that the area will go about the same as in 1948.

Maine and Vermont are considered sure for Eisenhower, New Hampshire and Massachusetts as leaning toward him. Connecticut is appraised now as safely Democratic, as it was four years ago, while normally Democratic Rhode Island is considered a question mark at this time.

Many Influences
Eisenhower popularity and sentiment for a new hand at the helm through numerous estimates of the outlook in New England, as for the rest of the country.

But editors around the nation, who got out transits and rods and surveyed political trends in their own back yards, jotted down a wide assortment of additional factors they believe are influencing the campaign. They mention corruption, the Korean war, "too much Trumanism," inflation and attendant high taxes and high prices.

SEVEN WESTERN MINES CLOSED

PITTSBURGH (P)—Seven Western Pennsylvania coal mines are closed today—four by pickets and three by local grievances.

The picket trouble started at the Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal Company's Montour No. 4 Mine near Pittsburgh Thursday and spread to the company's Westland, Lindley and Mathies operations in Washington County. About 1,000 men are employed at the four operations.

Called "Restless"
There was no immediate explanation for the picketing but some coal observers referred to it as restlessness on the part of the miners who expect an all-out strike to start over the week end.

John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, has reported a stalemate in his contract talks with the major soft coal operators. Many of the soft coal contracts expire Saturday and the miners traditionally refuse to work without a contract.

Closed by local grievances are the Shannopin Mine of Jones and Laughlin Steel, Coke Mine of Hillman Coal and Coke Co. and Corp. Mine No. 1 of Republic Steel Corp. All are in Greene County. The three operations have been closed for two weeks.

NEW BOBBY PINS
New bobby pins have been especially treated for use with home permanent wave solutions. Heretofore, some bobby pins were likely to change the color of the solution or leave marks on light or grey hair.

Polio Grimly Marching Toward Worst Record In U.S. History

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
(AP Science Reporter)

NEW YORK (P)—Polio is grimly marching toward its worst year in the nation's history.

The expectation is at least 50,000 cases this year—far above 1949's record 42,366.

Twenty-one states have epidemic rates. Localized outbreaks flare in towns and counties elsewhere. Eight of the 57 residents of Tulsa, Okla., have polio.

Some schools in at least nine states have delayed openings. One or two others cancelled football practice. In Lock Haven, Pa., all churches, movies and bars were closed for a time; schools still are shut.

Tragedies compounded in dozens of families. Polio struck 11 of 14 youngsters in one family, all eight in another with one boy dying, six children in another.
